

The Opening of the Seven Seals

Revelation 6

God Wins Series

Nate Marsh / June 21, 2026

Judgment is not chaos—it is the unfolding of God’s plan.

1. The _____ Remind Us That the World Is Broken.

Revelation 6:1-8

John sees four riders.

- The first rider speaks of conquest.
- The second rider speaks of war.
- The third rider speaks of famine.
- The fourth rider speaks of death.

The problem is deeper than human weakness. The problem is sin.

2. The _____ Reminds Us That God Has Not Forgotten His People.

Revelation 6:9-11

3. The _____ Reminds Us That Everyone Will Stand Before God.

Revelation 6:12-17

The challenge is to build our lives on something that can stand before God.

Questions for Further Study

Judgment is not chaos—it is the unfolding of God’s plan.

1. What part of that statement is comforting to you?
2. What part of that statement is difficult to accept?
3. The four riders represent conquest, war, famine, and death. Which of these realities feels most visible in our world today?
4. The sermon says, “There is a great difference between the world being broken and the world being abandoned.” Why is that distinction important?
5. The sermon points out that God does not rebuke, silence, or shame the questions of the saints – “how long, Lord?” What does that teach us about bringing our grief and frustration to God?
